

M.A.R.C.O. GmbH & Co. KG
Institute for Clinical Research & Statistics
Schirmerstr. 71
40211 Düsseldorf, Germany
Internet: <http://www.marco-institut.de>

M.A.R.C.O. is a privately owned institute for Clinical Research and Statistics. Since its foundation in 1997 as contract research organisation about 1400 projects have been performed for about 120 national and international companies of the pharmaceutical industry. Our core services are Statistics, Data Management, Pharmacokinetics and Medical Writing. M.A.R.C.O. is well known for its competence, high scientific standards, flexible and proactive project management, reliability and stability throughout major pharmaceutical companies.

We are currently looking for a

Statistician (m/f/d)

to join our motivated, cooperative and friendly team.

Job Profile:

- Statistical planning of clinical studies
- Generation of statistical analysis plans
- Statistical analysis and reporting
- Programming and validation of analysis programs
- Participation in the development and implementation of statistical methods and tools for data analysis.

Requirements:

- Education to Bachelor's/advanced degree level in mathematics, statistics, or a natural science discipline
- Familiarity with a range of methods and techniques used in the statistical analysis of clinical research data
- SAS programming skills
- Experience with CDISC ADAM
- Proficiency in English
- Self-motivated, good communicator and team player.

We offer excellent opportunities for professional and personal development, flexible office hours and part-time models.

For more detailed information please contact us via:

Phone: (+49) 211/ 977 93 3
E-mail: job@marco-institut.de

May 2023